Customer agrees to promptly notify Revvity Signals if its usage of the Service exceeds the contracted volume or data storage limits applicable to the Service and will promptly pay all fees associated with such excess usage. Subscriptions may be added or increased during a subscription term and any added or increased subscriptions will terminate on the same date as the underlying subscriptions. Payment for fees and expenses is subject to a late charge of 1½% per month if unpaid for thirty (30) days or more from invoice date. Revvity Signals reserves the right to change the pricing for the Service for any renewal subscription term or future purchase. All fees are exclusive of all taxes, levies, or duties imposed by taxing authorities, and Customer shall be responsible for the payment of all such taxes, levies, and duties, excluding taxes based upon the net income of Revvity Signals.

10. TERM; TERMINATION; SUSPENSION. The subscription term of the Service shall commence on the date Customer is first authorized to access to the Service and will expire at the end of the last subscription term to expire, unless the subscription term is renewed by the parties or the Service is earlier terminated as set forth herein. This Agreement shall automatically renew for any and all renewal terms purchased by the Customer. Customer may not terminate the Service for its convenience during the subscription term purchased by Customer. Either party may earlier terminate the Service with written notice to the other party if such party materially breaches this Agreement, and such breach remains uncured thirty (30) days following receipt of written notice specifying such breach. Revvity Signals may immediately terminate the Service without liability hereunder if Customer or its Users breach Section 2 of this Agreement. Revvity Signals may additionally terminate this Agreement with one (1) year prior written notice if Revvity Signals ceases to provide the Service generally.

Upon expiration or termination of this Agreement, Customer's rights to access and use the Service shall automatically and immediately terminate, and Customer shall immediately (i) cease use of the Service; (ii) delete all copies of documentation made available to Customer by Revvity Signals; and (iii) at Customers' expense, return to Revvity Signals all Confidential Information and data of Revvity Signals (including all copies thereof) then in Customer's possession, custody or control, and certify in writing as to such action. No later than twenty (20) days following termination or expiration of the affected Service, Customer may request a one-time export of Customer Data from the Service in Revvity Signals' standard format at no charge to Customer. If Revvity Signals does not receive such request within twenty (20) days of expiration or termination of the affected Service, Revvity Signals may destroy, delete or otherwise render inaccessible all Customer Data in its possession, custody or control without liability hereunder. Customer may receive a refund of any fees pre-paid by Customer for the period of the subscription term remaining following the effective date of termination for the affected Service if: (i) Revvity Signals ceases to provide the Service generally or (ii) Customer terminates this Agreement or Service due to Revvity Signals' material uncured breach. Any other suspension or termination of the Service by Customer or Revvity Signals shall not relieve or excuse Customer from its obligation to make payment(s) under this Agreement.

Revvity Signals may suspend Customer's access to or use of the Service without liability hereunder if Customer or any User violates any provision of this Agreement, including failure to pay fees due hereunder, or, in Revvity Signals' reasonable judgment, if the Service or any component thereof is about to suffer significant threat to security or functionality. If practicable and permitted under applicable law, Revvity Signals will provide advance notice to Customer of any such suspension. Revvity Signals will re-establish the affected Service as promptly as possible after Revvity Signals determines that the situation giving rise to the suspension has been cured. Revvity Signals may terminate the Service if any of the foregoing causes of suspension are not cured within thirty (30) days after Revvity Signals' initial notice thereof. If Revvity Signals suspends, terminates, or prevents access to Customer's account, Customer must not attempt to re-register or submit content or Customer Data (e.g., using someone else's registration), without Revvity Signals' prior permission. The period of any suspension will be determined at Revvity Signals' reasonable discretion based on the applicable facts and circumstances.

Provisions that survive termination or expiration of this Agreement are those relating to limitation of liability, indemnification, confidentiality, ownership, payment, and others which by their nature are intended to survive. Upon expiration or termination, Revvity Signals will be entitled to discontinue prospective hosting of Customer

Data.

Revvity Signals and Customer will each exercise the same degree of diligence as it exercises in protecting its own confidential information, but no less than reasonable efforts, to safeguard the Confidential Information and to prevent its unauthorized use or disclosure. If any Confidential Information is required to be disclosed by an order of a governmental agency, legislative body or court of competent jurisdiction, the receiving party may disclose such information, provided that the receiving party (i) provides the disclosing party with prompt notice of such request or requirement so that the disclosing party may pursue a protective order or other appropriate remedy and (ii) furnishes only that portion of the Confidential Information which the receiving party is advised by counsel is legally required to be so disclosed. The indemnifying party shall keep the indemnitee fully apprised at all times as to the status of the defense. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the indemnitee shall have the right to employ its own separate counsel in any such action at the sole expense of the indemnitee. Neither the indemnifying party nor any indemnitee shall be liable for the settlement of any action or claim affected without its consent.
